6/17/71

Clerk,
U.S.Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir,

In ruling against me in C.A. 2569-70 yesterday afternoon, Judge Gesell told me I could appeal. I told him this was without meaning because I am without means. Judge Gesell then said that your court would provide this help.

I am writing to ask for it, to ask how it can be arranged, and to file a notice that can be recorded as my appeal from that decision.

In C.A.2569-70 I was pro se.

Judge Gesell did not explain how this help would be provided or what form it would take.

I can come to Washington almost any time I hear from you.

Thank you for anything you do to help.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
